

ECONOMIC INDICATORS

GLOBAL WATCHLIST

Trudeau says Canada could build on U.S.-Mexico NAFTA deal

Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau said he saw a possibility that Canada could build on a bilateral trade deal that the United States and Mexico have already agreed upon. Fred Katayama reports

FULL STORY HERE

MACROECONOMIC SNAPSHOT

Instead of more jobs, DOLE sees layoffs under Trabaho bill

An official of the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) warned that the Tax Reform for Attracting Better and Higher Quality Opportunities (Trabaho) bill would result in job losses if it becomes a law.

FULL STORY HERE

P20 wage hike eyed in NCR

Labor Secretary Silvestre H. Bello III said on Tuesday the regional wage board in Metro Manila is now considering a P20 minimum- wage hike.

FULL STORY HERE

FINANCIAL TRENDS

Gov't to borrow P270B locally in 4th quarter

The government will borrow P270 billion locally through the issuance of treasury bills and bonds in the fourth quarter, a smaller program than a quarter ago, as loans from two multilateral lenders will be released during the period.

FULL STORY HERE

INDUSTRY NEWS

e-EVOLUTION Concept to Headline Mitsubishi Philippines's Exhibit at PIMS 2018

With this year's PIMS theme "Future in Mobility", MMPC promises to wow the public as it displays the future and the latest Mitsubishi models. An all-new concept car, the Mitsubishi e-EVOLUTION Concept, will be flown to the country to allow PIMS visitors to get a glimpse of this concept car.

FULL STORY HERE

INTERNATIONAL

Ford to boost China output to avoid tariffs

Ford is looking at speeding up plans to build more Lincoln models in Chinese plants amid the growing trade war with the United States that has made US exports less attractive, a senior executive said on Monday (Tuesday in Manila).

FULL STORY HERE